Dedication

With love, honor, and respect, the 2006-2007 JCHS yearbook staff and student body dedicates this WILDCAT yearbook to Mrs. Karen Hildebrand. She has taught students at the elementary school for 14 years in the capacity of a 3rd and 6th grade teacher. Mrs. Hildebrand also assisted with the elementary honor choir for 8 years. She retired from the Joseph City Schools after a combined 40 years of teaching and inspiring hundreds of students. Mrs. Hildebrand is married to Bob Hildebrand. She has a son, Rusty, and one grandson. Mrs. Hildebrand was very dedicated to her students, always doing extra tutoring before school. The ultimate professional, Mrs. Hildebrand was dependable, trustworthy, strict, and very fair. We would like to thank her for the many years of service and hard work.

Dear Josh-
As I sit to write this letter, I can't help but look back at your life. You have always been an adventurer, and being our first born you have certainly made us keep up with you. From broken bones to broken hearts, you have amazed us at your strength and character. We are so proud of the young man you have become and the path you have chosen. We know that things have been a bit different for the past couple of years, but we pray that you will remember how you have been raised and what is most important in life. Remember to love God with all your heart, all your mind, and all your strength and that through Him all things are possible to those who love Him. Please remember that you are loved and thought of very highly by everyone with whom you have any contact. You are a terrific son and you make us proud.
We love you very much and wish you all the happiness and joy that this new chapter can bring!

All our Love and Prayers-
Mom and Dad

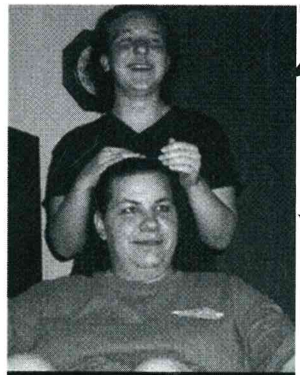
I Wish For You

Time goes by so fast
And the days they seem to dance
Into the distance till they're gone
If I had a map to lead you down life's path
I'd give it to you
But I don't so go on
Cry hard, laugh loud
Be humble, stand proud
And don't be afraid of your fears
Let love break your heart
Just be who you are
All of this
All that there is
I wish for you
You can never know which way your world will turn
How the stars are gonna fall
Salty tears they burn
There are lessons you will learn
But you'll be stronger for it all
Oh, yes you will
Cry hard, laugh loud
Be humble, stand proud
And don't be afraid of your fears
Let love break your heart
Just be who you are
All of this
All that there is
I wish for you
Cry hard, laugh loud
Be humble, stand proud
Hold onto your faith with all your heart
Be careful, be brave
Be still, but don't stay
In any one place for too long
Remember God's grace
Give more than you take
All of this
All that there is
I wish for you



And all of your family's love

Ayla,
You are strong! You are brilliant. You are loved! Remember that you will always have a safe spot in the arms of your family. Fly high, baby! We love you so much!
